UNITED STATES IMPERIALISM.
Astounding Argument of Attorney General

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—A writer in the New York Sunday Herald says: "The Attorney-General of the United States has done many unusual things since he came into office, but his last performance is most remarkable that so high a functionary ever committed. On Friday, December 28, Attorney-General Brewster appeared in the United States in the case of 'The New Orleans National Bank vs. Merchants Postmaster of New Orleans.' This the case wherein the Postmaster General directed that the mail to the bank be withheld because of its (the bank's) alleged connection with the Louisiana Lottery Company. With the merits of the case I have nothing to do. But in the case I have nothing to do. But in the Attorney-General's speech he took ground for the Government—if the reports of the New Orleans press be accurate—that contains the most remarkable assumption of the time. His first position was that t will the people of the United States be subject; that with him rested the power and authority to decide whether they (the people) should participate in the benefits of any institution of the National Government.

to which has been delegated the administration of public affairs. He declared that member of the Cabinet, as an official, without restriction or responsibility for any of his acts to the citizen, however wrong those acts might be. Attorney-General

Brewster further stated that the Cabinet member was absolutely supreme in the discharge of his duties, and therefore beyond the reach of any judicial process, and that the only power that could punish him was Congress, by act of impeachment.

He told the United States Circuit Judge that he must not dare to render a decision against the United States and the author of the Cabinet member, under the penalty of being impeached.

of the dispensure of the supreme author of the country. I need not say that su an argument as this was never before ma in a dignified court. There were pres two United States Judges, three memb of the Louisiana Supreme Bench, and least two hundred of the leading lawyers from all parts of the State, and the unanimous opinion was that Judge Pardee should have administered to Mr. Brewster prompt and effective rebuke for his contempt of the United States Court in the daring to threaten him. The pretense that a cabinet officer, the reason of his commission, has supreme authority over the people, to whom he owes no account, and that the people were only the serfs of haughty despot, was laid enough, but such an official can defy the United States Court, and threaten it with his vengeance if it dares to do aught but what he bids the most outrageous and audacious assumption that a public servant has ever attempted to make. It is no more than this:

in this country. It is more than this—it is a proclamation of imperialism in its most offensive form. I am glad to know that the speech of Mr. Brewster is to be carefully copied from the notes of the official reporter of the Court for a prominent lawyer, w was the counsel for the plaintiff, and presented to the President for his consideration, and possibly for his action. This was done at the suggestion of judges and leading members of the bar, who desire to know how far the conduct of the Attorney General meets with Executive approval.

BLISS' MODEST FEES.

$38,000 for One Year, and Another Year to Hear From.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—It is probable that the information called for by Senator Van Wyck's resolution relating to the expenditures of the Department of Justice, will be sent into the Senate some time during next week. Mr. Van Wyck has called for vouchers and the items of the expense count of the Department during the year. It will be shown that enormous sums have been wasted in the payment of sp or so-called detectives, who have had th expenses paid down to even drinks.

It will also be shown that some extraordinary fees have been paid. There are cases of special counsel employed in some of the Territories being paid at the rate of $50 a day. Some of the most remarkable bills for expenses have been put in by George Bliss, and have all been approved by the Attorney General. Besides receiving $100 a day from the Government since his connection with the Star Route cases, he has charged every item of his

sonal expenditures. At the close of the first year (George Bliss drew from the department for his fees over $38,000). There is no reason to suppose that his bill for the year will be any less. Take this in connection with his fee in the National B.

cases, where four millions was won for clients, and his share in the division of Ottoman case, and it is estimated that employment here must have been worth him between $150,000 and $200,000, if more.

Two hogs by a majority of one hundred and ninety-three have received notice that they are welcome to deprecate at will in the city, while the dogs have received notice to quit by a majority of seventy-three. A half loaf however, is better than none.

When the vote was taken in 1880 the majority for the hog was 424. At this election it is only 193, which shows a very healthy change in public sentiment concerning the dirty brute. Let real friends of the town not despair for it is certain as fast that in due time, the hog, like the dog, will go.

EXPERIENCED

Experienced railroad men say that the practice of overloading freight cars has become too common, and that the rails cannot bear the heavy strain to which they are subjected. Formerly a common car load was ten tons. Now that has greatly increased to 25,000 pounds, and in some cases far beyond this amount.
This is the cause of so many accidents occurring from rails spreading.

It is wise to provide against emergencies that are liable to arise in every family. A cold may be a dangerous thing or depending upon the means at hand to combat it. In sudden attacks of cold croup, asthma, etc., Ayer's Cherry Pectoril will prove the quickest and most effective cure, and your best friend.

George A. Dyer, owner in the Lowell Carpet Corporation, was, for over twenty years before his removal to Lowell, afflicted with salt rheum in the wrist form. His ulcerations actually covered more than half the surface of his body and limbs. He was entirely cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. See certificate in Ayer's Almanac for 1883.

"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." Don't wait until it is too late. Act promptly. Relieve the suffering of your children at once. When you know a certain remedy, use it. Will's World Worm Candy fills the bill. It has never failed to remove worms if they are present in the system, and it is useless to lose time by resorting to other remedies when you will find this at your druggist's.

Who is the Prettiest Girl in America?

Is a question that would perplex a con-after this, that women lack judgment.

W. H. Hall's Balsam for the lungs in a great number of cases and always with success. One case in particular was given up by several physicians who had been called in for consultation with myself. The patient had all the symptoms of confirmed consumption—cough, night sweats, hectic fever, harassing expectoration. He commenced immediately to get better and was soon restored to his nor-

Balsam for the Lungs the most valuable expectorant for breaking up dis-easing
